35 “Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit;

36 be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks.

37 Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them.

38 If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.
41 Peter said, “Lord, are you telling this parable for us or for everyone?”

42 And the Lord said, “Who then is the faithful and prudent manager whom his master will put in charge of his slaves, to give them their allowance of food at the proper time?

43 Blessed is that slave whom his master will find at work when he arrives.

44 Truly I tell you, he will put that one in charge of all his possessions.
Luke 12
45 But if that slave says to himself, ‘My master is delayed in coming,’ and if he begins to beat the other slaves, men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk,

46 the master of that slave will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour that he does not know, and will cut him in pieces, and put him with the unfaithful.

47 That slave who knew what his master wanted, but did not prepare himself or do what was wanted, will receive a severe beating.

48 But the one who did not know and did what deserved a beating will receive a light beating.
Luke 12:48b

“From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required; and from the one to whom much has been entrusted, even more will be demanded.”

How to Gird Up Your Loins

1. The tunic wouldn't allow you to do heavy labor or fight in battle, necessitating the "girding" of one's loins.

2. First, hoist the tunic up so that all the fabric is above your knees. This will give you mobility.

3. Gather all the extra material in front of you, so that the back of the tunic is snug against your backside.

4. Once the excess fabric is gathered in front, pull it underneath and between your legs to your rear. This feels much like a diaper.

5. Gather half of the material in each hand, bringing it back around to the front.

6. Finally, tie your two handfuls of material together, and you're all set for both battle and some hard labor. Go forth, ye men, and gird up your loins!
According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

And now, little children. Abide in Him;
that, when He shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before Him at his coming.
